

Registration and Data Files

Instructors and Students! Did you know your registration and data files are now available for easy download and installation from our Online Learning Centers? Choose from the books from here to access an easy-to-install file that registers your program, creates your practice, and restores your data.

Instructors can also find resources available under the Instructor Edition for use with the textbook and Medisoft program, where available. Contact your sales representative for more information.